

1 (TRACK # 2)

2 MR. KATZ: In August, and I just 3 assumed since we didn't hear from you that 4 Aramark didn't have a position one way or the 5 other. I was just --

6 MR. KLECKNER: I think we have a
7 position now. I'll back up. What happened
8 with the Mets in the off season is they 9 obviously wanted me to bring in other people
10 to talk about the business. I wouldn't bring 11 in other people to talk about the business
12 because we're in contract and you're not in 13 breach of anything with Aramark.

14 MR. KATZ: Thank God.

15 | MR. KLECKNER: So --

16 | MR. KATZ: That's good.

17 MR. KLECKNER: -- what I had pushed 18 back to them was to, instead of trying to 19 find another vendor because I wasn't going to 20 put any more -- was to find a way to work
21 with you to come to mutually agreeable terms.
22 Now that was something they were supposed to 23 be working on.

24 MR. KATZ: Well -- okay. I guess
25 that's fair. They are trying to do

1 (TRACK #2)

2 something, but it's obviously one-sided

3 but --

2 MR. KATZ: Due to a certain degree,
3 and obviously you'll tell me whether I could 4 work here.

5 MR. KLECKNER: I'm hoping in the game
6 of telephone message I passed back to Mike
7 Landeen on Tuesday when we got back was a 8 really clear, guys, we're in business with 9 Kosher Sports. You need to figure out your 10 piece of it. That's (inaudible) the 11 direction we're going in.

12 MR. KATZ: Right.

13 MR. KLECKNER: So --

14 MR. KATZ: But -- but you're telling
15 me that at some point, despite the judge's 16 ruling that they are not to interfere with 17 me, they come to -- even afterwards, come to 18 you and told you, hey, you know, let's try to 19 find somebody else.

20 MR. KLECKNER: They would defend this 21 that they want to know their other options in 22 case something went south with you, so you
23 can see whatever. But to cut through the 24 bullshit. Yeah.

25 MR. KATZ: Yeah.

1 (TRACK # 4)

2 MR. KLECKNER: They want to know what
3 their other options were. So they could tell
4 you to pound sand or pay off or could ever,
5 fuck off, and they had something on the 6 shelf.

2 MR. KLECKNER: You know, and what I
3 mean by that is when you go back to, you
4 know, us, although off the record, pretty
5 open with you about the fact that they wanted
6 me to shop it and they wanted me terminate
7 and bring in somebody else and that somebody
8 else frankly would not have been in under a 9 sponsorship agreement or --

10 MR. KATZ: Right.

11 MR. KLECKNER: It would have been a
12 much smaller one. I mean so --
